The image shows a standard periodic table of elements, color-coded by groups. The word 'NAUGRA' is superimposed in large, bold, blue letters across the middle of the table. Below the main table, there are two rows of elements: the Lanthanide Series (La to Lu) and the Actinide Series (Ac to Lr). At the very bottom, there is a legend with colored boxes corresponding to different element categories: Alkali Metal (red), Alkaline Earth (orange), Transition Metal (yellow), Rare Earth (green), Lanthanide (light green), Actinide (dark green), Halogen (purple), Noble Gas (blue), and Metalloid (light blue).
